Great authors share great ideas for teaching & learning!

- 9:00 am Terry Campbell: Welcome to Nipissing
- 9:15 am Larry Swartz: Take Me to Your Readers
Larry explores how to help kids develop their reading tastes and grow a love of reading. He shares his secrets for using the best children's books to lead students to read, read, read!
- 9:45 am Kathy Kacer: Teaching Sensitive Material to Young People
Award-winning children's author Kathy Kacer addresses the complex issues around sharing sensitive topics with students.
- 10:30 am Coffee Break & Book Display
- 11:00 am Terry Campbell & Michelle McMartin: Literacy Out Loud
Discover the powerful role that oral language plays in developing key reading and writing skills. Terry and Michelle will show us how to use talk to create a more vibrant classroom.
- 11:30 am Amanda Yuill: Reaching & Teaching Them All
Get fresh, lively insights and strategies into building rapport with kids using humour, body language, and shared experiences. Whether you're in the classroom for a day, a week, or full-time, you can make real connections with every student.
- 12:00 pm David Booth: What Is a "Good" Teacher?
Veteran educator David Booth takes us on a journey through forty years of teaching and learning. Sharing his experiences in the classroom, and working with other teachers, David examines the characteristics that will help you become the best teacher you can be.
- 12:30 pm Lunch & Book Display
